Thank you for your interest in hosting this Major Disc Golf Championship event, the first ever to be jointly sanctioned by the Professional Disc Golf Association (PDGA) and the World Flying Disc Federation (WFDF). These guidelines are to assist you in preparing your bid document to host the 2016 Team Disc Golf World Championships (TDGWC).

In order for PDGA and WFDF to make an informed decision when selecting the best qualified hosts, it is crucial that your bid include all the required information. Please read through the background information about PDGA and WFDF, and then follow the headings and guidelines when preparing your bid. If you are selected to host, you will then have a comprehensive blueprint from which to build your operational plans.

Preparing a bid to host a major international sporting event is a challenging but rewarding endeavor and we thank you for your interest and commitment. We rely on hosts like you and your community to help us to bring together the best disc golfers in the world through competition and fellowship. We are committed to growing our sport, and this world class event will help to increase disc golf’s exposure and development throughout the world, while allowing new generations of disc golfers to experience fantastic international competition.

All bids will be reviewed by: The WFDF Disc Golf Committee, WFDF Board of Directors and PDGA Board of Directors. A host will be selected based upon their experience in running a sanctioned PDGA/WFDF event, contents of the bid and budget, suitable facilities, proximity of selected venues to each other, course(s) used in competition amongst other requirements. These criteria are only an example and are not the sum of all points reviewed.

These bid guidelines form the basis for the event contract and are an integral part of the commitment given by the Tournament Organizing Committee (TOC). If you have any questions regarding the bid process or your bid proposal for the 2016 Team Disc Golf World Championships, please contact PDGA Events Manager and WFDF Committee Chair Michael Downes at events@pdga.com with a copy to WFDF Events Manager Karina Woldt at karina.woldt@wfdf.org.

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 About Disc Golf

Disc Golf is a sport that is played using the same general rules, terminology and etiquette as traditional golf but instead of using a range of clubs to hit a ball into a hole in the ground, a competitor throws a high tech plastic flying disc or Frisbee® into a standardized disc catching target. There are 18 par-rated holes and the object of the game is to play the course in the fewest number of throws of the disc as possible.

The sport was formalized in the 1970’s, and is designed to be enjoyed by people of all ages, making it an excellent lifetime fitness sport. The fact that millions of people around the world have thrown a flying disc at some point in their lives gives the game broad appeal and a receptive audience. Over 5,000 disc golf courses can be found in more than 40 countries worldwide. After years of exponential growth, disc golf is now exploding in popularity.

1.2 About the Professional Disc Golf Association (PDGA)

The Professional Disc Golf Association (PDGA) is the international governing body for disc golf and is the largest organization for disc golf in the world. The PDGA is a member governed 501(c)(4) non-profit association based in Appling, Georgia, USA. Traditionally focused on the USA and Canada, PDGA activity in other countries has been growing exponentially since 2005, when the International Program was introduced. Today there are more than 5,400 total PDGA International members (72,000+ PDGA members) and 360+ Tour events in Europe, Japan, South Korea, Australia, and New Zealand. All told, the International Program is now strengthening and supporting the growth of disc golf and the PDGA brand in 28 affiliated countries worldwide.

The PDGA also writes and maintains the rules for the sport, sets the standards for equipment used in play, manages a player rating system, and publishes the sport’s leading magazine, DiscGolfer.
1.3 About the World Flying Disc Federation (WFDF)

The World Flying Disc Federation is the international sports federation responsible for world governance of flying disc (Frisbee™) sports, including Ultimate, Beach Ultimate, Disc Golf, Freestyle, Guts, and Individual Events. WFDF is a federation of 64 member associations which represent flying disc sports and their athletes in more than 60 countries. WFDF is an international federation recognized by the International Olympic Committee (IOC), the International Paralympic Committee (IPC), a member of ARISF, SportAccord and the International World Games Association, and a registered not-for-profit 501(c)(3) corporation in the state of Colorado, USA.

WFDF serves as the international governing body of all flying disc sports, with responsibility for sanctioning world championship and other international flying disc events, establishing uniform rules, and setting standards for and recording of world records.

1.4 About the World Flying Disc Federation Disc Golf Committee

The World Flying Disc Federation Disc Golf Committee is a group of disc golf promoters dedicated to the growth of the sport on an International level. With representation from every corner of the globe, the committee is responsible for the standardization of disc golf rules, equipment, structures, and player classification worldwide. The committee is also the overseer of any jointly sanctioned WFDF/PDGA world championship disc golf event.

For more information visit www.wfdf.org.

1.5 Hosting a World Championship

Featuring the world’s best men and women disc golfers in a teams event, this is the first World Championship event to be jointly sanctioned by PDGA and WFDF.

PDGA Major Events are the premier national and international competitions for the sport of disc golf each year, featuring the world’s best men and women disc golfers competing for world, national and other championship titles.

Hosting the 2016 Team Disc Golf World Championships is your chance to host an international sporting event in your community, drawing interest and attention to your city and country, and generating economic impact for local businesses.

4. BID DOCUMENT GUIDELINES

4.1 PDGA Championship Event Guiding Principles

A PDGA/WFDF Major Championship event does not just take place on the course. All aspects of the event must be well-planned and well-executed, down to the smallest details. Please use the following principles as your guide when preparing your bid and incorporate them into your planning.

World-Class Competition, World-Class Event Services

Your bid should acknowledge and respect that the needs and expectations of the competitors hold the highest priority, both on the course and off. Off the field, all services should go smoothly for the competitors, so they don't have to worry about anything except their competition. Catering services should serve food that is geared towards athletes competing at the highest levels while addressing cultural differences and expectations as well as other dietary needs and restrictions. Event transportation should be on time and sufficient. Hotels should be quiet, clean, and conveniently located. All of these areas are more detailed in the pages that follow, but the principle of putting the athletes first and delivering a world-class event should be incorporated into all plans and decisions.
Professionalism at All Levels

All Major Championship events should be planned with the utmost professionalism. Each planning area should be respectful, well-thought out, and given careful consideration. This is important to consider when selecting staff and key volunteers. For each area, choose people that are trained and experienced. In some cases, it is best to partner with existing companies or agencies that are experts in certain areas to help ensure smooth and successful operations.

When planning your tournament please also remember the message and impression you are giving to others: spectators, sponsors, fans, and future fans, city officials, convention bureau management or any groups that are involved, interested or in attendance. From check-in to the awards ceremonies: please consider and evaluate all areas, and ensure that they are planned with dignity, respect, knowledge and enthusiasm.

Value

Disc golf competitors are, for the most part, fully funded through their own contributions. With airfare, tournament fees, lodging, and meals, the cost of attending an event can be quite expensive. We aim to provide Major Championship events that are a good investment in the career of a disc golfer. We work to ensure that they receive quality services, as well as quality competition, throughout their entire event experience, so they get good value for their investment.

4.2 Bid Application Contents

Please prepare your bid document according to the following guidelines, providing as much detailed information as possible for each item in this section. These are the criteria for which the selection committee evaluates and selects Championship event hosts. If you are unable to respond to any section, please provide an explanation as to why this is not possible. Incomplete information may delay timeliness of the decision-making process.

Although you may not be ready with specific information in some areas, these details will help guide you in your plans and let you know the minimum of what is expected.

Appendix A

Team Disc Golf World Championships

This unique biennial event will be the first of its kind in the disc golf world. Never before have we seen players compete to represent their country in a team-style format. This team competition will become the model for disc golf at future team-based competitions, such as the World Games or even the Olympics. It is expected that the participation rate will only increase as the event gains momentum, so this 12 Team format is merely a projection of field size and can be expanded to 16 teams and beyond. Please keep in mind that several of the variables listed below are flexible and dependent on additional circumstances, such as availability, interest level, participation rate and location, to name a few. As 2016 will present this inaugural event, many of these parameters are still up for discussion and could continue to develop through execution and experience.

Country/Team Invitation Process: Teams will be selected by the WFDF Disc Golf Committee through assistance from the PDGA International Director and Events
Manager. We will ask for a “Letter of Intent” from those nations who wish to participate, and deliver invitations accordingly. It is the intention of PDGA/WFDF to include any interested country/team in the event.

Team Composition: Individual Team members will need to be selected by PDGA Country Coordinator or otherwise approved method. It is suggested to use the PDGA Player Rating system or World Ranking system (or a combination of both). All teams will have 6 players- 4 Open Men, 1 Open Woman and 1 Masters Aged Male player. *Note: check WFDF standards for player eligibility here: http://wfdf.org/sports/eligibilty-information.

Competition Format: Teams will compete in multiple competition formats throughout the event. Each player will be “seeded” within their Team. MPO players #1-4, FPO #5, and MPM #6. In the Round Robin rounds, each player will play match play versus the same seed from another country. Matches will be 9 holes so that two matches can be played in one 18-hole round of disc golf. For the Doubles round, pairs can be grouped by seed, and multiple formats can be utilized (best shot, best disc, alternate shot, etc....) Team Golf can incorporate a number of different formats such as total team score or any variation of combined throws.

Proposed Overall 12-Team Event Schedule Example:

Thursday
11:00 Opening Ceremony
14:00 Round Robin 1
16:00 Round Robin 2

Friday
9:00 Round Robin 3
11:00 Round Robin 4
14:00 Team Golf 18 holes

Saturday
10:00 Round Robin 5
13:00 Doubles 18 holes
19:00 Players Dinner

Sunday
9:00 Semi Finals 18 holes match play)
13:00 Finals 18 hole match play
